1. Overview
   a. CLIA waved testing for Group A Strep (GAS) is an efficient tool for evaluating a sore throat that is suspicious for strep

2. Goal of the Procedure
   a. To learn the importance of obtaining a swab of the throat that will evidence accuracy of diagnosis
   b. To learn the importance of accuracy in following procedure to develop the test for rapid GAS testing

3. Reference

4. Required Reading / Review
   b. Evaluation of sore throat in children -- UpToDate

5. Required Procedure Competencies
   - Perform proper procedure to accurately obtain a sample to test for GAS
   - Demonstrate proper procedure to develop CLIA waved test for GAS