

Assessment of Behavior and Learning for Excellence (ABLE) Clinic provides assessment services for:

- cognitive, emotional, and physical difficulties affecting education, employment, and life issues
- need an evaluation for suspected learning disorders, autism, ADHD, and brain injuries
- provide assessment to determine disability accommodations at school or work
- identifying resources to meet your needs

There is a cost for service, but UA students receive a discount (prices subject to change).

Check out the website for more information: <https://ableclinic.medicine.arizona.edu/>